

Lucky Winners Report Contest Was 'Strictly for the Birds'

By SONNIE TOMCHAK
FR. 5-0662

A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. Jerry Shaw, of 24014 Janet Lane, and Lee Foster, of 4324 Highgrove Ave., reported this week after winning a turkey and chicken, respectively, in a contest sponsored by the South Bay Archery Club.

On Dec. 11, a group of 14 Ellinwoodites made the long trip

LB State College Urges Immediate Enrollment

Prospective students to Long Beach State College are urged to submit applications for admission immediately, according to Clarence R. Bergland, admission officer.

Bergland stressed the importance of immediate application for admission to the college, because of the expected increase in enrollment for the coming semester.

Bank to Close Early

California Bank's Torrance Office will close at 3 p.m. on Christmas Eve, A. O. Otse, vice president, has announced. The 3 p.m. closing hour also will be observed New Year's Eve. Thereafter the bank will continue to close at the regular time of 6 p.m. on Fridays.

into L.A. for a dinner at the Grandview Gardens, a China Town restaurant. Seated around the table were Messrs. and Mrs. Art Austin, John Postler, Orville Robinson, Joe Tomchak, Blayne Asher, Frank Pope and Ray Smith. The party was served a family style dinner which included egg shell soup, chicken chow mein, almond duck, french fried shrimp, barbecued spare ribs, fried rice and assorted vegetable dishes. Janet Smith was the only one brave enough to attempt eating with chop sticks. After dinner the couples danced to the music of the combo playing in the restaurant and then went for a tour of China Town and Olivera St. While in the Mexican quarter Frank Pope, Sonnie Tomchak, and John Postler had their pictures drawn by a side walk artist. The party broke up after the group all but filled up a tiny all night restaurant where they had coffee.

Mrs. William Mead, of 4702 Green Meadows Ave., spent the week end of Dec. 10 in Palm Springs. Mrs. Mead, with three of her girl friends who live in Hermosa Beach, left Friday night and returned on Sunday from what were three wonderful days of golfing and swimming in the resort town.

Kimmy Rosier, of 4824 Highgrove Ave., celebrated her third birthday with a party on Dec. 11. Fifteen neighborhood children were present and were served ice cream, cake and cotton candy. Color movies were made of the whole sticky affair and should be fun to show Kimmy when she becomes a proper young lady.

Barbara Pennington, of 4818 Highgrove Ave., entered the hospital for surgery on Sunday, Dec. 12. She is recovering nicely and should be home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Overby, of 440 Highgrove Ave., have reservations at the El Rancho Hotel in Las Vegas for the week between Christmas and New Years.

The Karl Weber family of 4714 Highgrove Ave., welcomed a baby girl, Judith Ann, Dec. 7. The We-bers' have an older son.

Mr. and Mrs. George Walker of 4832 Highgrove Ave., are expecting a visitor who will arrive on Dec. 25 at 1 a.m. and it isn't Santa Claus. It's Rosemary Walker's brother, George Rader, who is flying here from New Iberia, Louisiana. Mr. Rader will return home after the holidays.

The Harlan Wilsons of 24008

Janet Lane, entertained at a party in their home, Dec. 11. The guests were all co-workers of Mr. Wilson at Alresearch where he works in the spare sales department. After the party at the Wilson home the group attended another party at the Nickles Egg Ranch in WALTERIA.

Robin Ann Wilson, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Wilson received a tetanus shot on Dec. 9. The shot was given to counteract any danger from a bite Robin suffered while playing with the family dog.

Mrs. James Dias and daughters, Coleen, 2, and Bonita, 5, left yesterday by plane for Pittsburgh, Pa. Mr. Dias is already in the east on business and will join his wife and children in their family home for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Brad Slaven, of 4709 Green Meadows Ave., report that a prowler was heard around their home recently. It was during the last heavy rain that the Slavens suspected a peeping Tom of being near their home. The next morning they found a man's foot prints in the ground outside their bathroom window.
